

AGSC & RCE Greater Atlanta Information Session

Interdisciplinary Education, Research, Public Engagement, and the UN Sustainable Development Goals

March 7th
Swann 115
11 a.m.

Sponsored by:

School of Modern Languages
Atlanta Global Studies Center
Serve-Learn-Sustain

“Co-sponsored by the Atlanta Global Studies Center (AGSC), a consortium of Georgia Institute of Technology and Georgia State University, funded in part by a US Department of Education Title VI National Resource Center grant.”

Join faculty, staff and students to learn about two new exciting initiatives at Georgia Tech: the Atlanta Global Studies Center (a Title VI National Resource Center Consortium with Georgia State University) and RCE Greater Atlanta, officially acknowledged by the United Nations University, a regional, multistakeholder sustainability network co-led by GT’s Center for Serve-Learn-Sustain. The session will focus on how you can get involved in these vibrant and dynamic communities whose interests connect the local to the global.

The information session will cover funding opportunities for faculty and students, course development initiatives, collaborative working groups, a visiting scholar program, k-12 outreach initiatives, information about the Atlanta Global Studies Symposium on April 25-27, 2019, and innovative graduate programming. This event is free and open to the public.
